

ACADEMIC HONOR POLICY ADVISORS NEEDED!

SERVICE OPPORTUNITY TO SUPPORT STUDENTS!

Do you have a passion for mentorship?

Navigating university policies can be daunting. When a student faces an Academic Honor Policy (AHP) allegation, an advisor bridges the gap, helping the student feel heard and supported as they navigate the policy. We are looking for faculty and staff who want to come alongside students to offer clarity, calm, and guidance.

As a volunteer advisor, your primary duties include:

- Clarifying the Process: Help students understand the steps of an AHP allegation.
- Answering Questions: Be a reliable resource for their concerns and what-ifs.
- Preparation Support: Help students prepare for hearings
- Promoting Fairness: Serve as a key partner in ensuring an unbiased, educational process.
