

FACULTY RECOGNITION

You are cordially invited to join your colleagues for strategic sessions focused on growing your national reputation. Register Here.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

9:00 – 10:00

College of Medicine, Mino Jo Powell Conference Room 1150

NAM + ASEMFL Information Session

Facilitated by Regan Bailey, NAM member, this session will cover the role NAM takes in our society, what can – and cannot – be known about nominations to the National Academy of Medicine, and thoughts on building an Academy-worthy career. We will also discuss how the Academy of Science Engineering & Medicine of Florida (ASEMFL) can factor into this process.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

3:00 – 4:00

201 Westcott

Telling Your Story: Faculty Workshop for managing data and media

The most effective scholars manage a public persona that reaches broad audiences. Whether it is a news article, social media post, online database (google scholar or Scopus), or an accurate data recording, public information on scholars is used by others in a variety of ways, influencing perceptions about awards, collaboration, rankings, and leadership. Come learn from media professionals and honorific award experts how (and why) to spend time putting your best public face forward.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1

11:00 – noon

201 Westcott

NAS + ASEMFL Information Session

Facilitated by Greg Boebinger, NAS member, this session will cover the role NAS takes in our society, what can – and cannot – be known about nominations to the National Academy of Science, and thoughts on building an Academy-worthy career. We will also discuss how the Academy of Science Engineering & Medicine of Florida (ASEMFL) can factor into this process.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 210:00 – 11:00*Bradley Reading Room, Strozier Library*AAAS Fellow Readiness Workshop

Led by Sonja Carter, this workshop will cover how the different nomination methods of AAAS Fellow work, eligibility criteria for nominees and sponsors/letter-writers, and tips and tactics for putting together a competitive nomination packet.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 610:30 – 11:30*Chemical Science Laboratory building, Kroto Auditorium*Are you an innovator? Learn about the National Academy of Inventors & Florida Inventors Hall of Fame

Learn from Commercialization about these two organizations and the process and criteria for nominations. Faculty inventors and researchers are invited to ask questions and learn more about commercialization at Florida State and how that contributes to the public impact of innovation.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 73:00 – 4:00*Innovation Hub Pitch Room*Humanities Fellowships and the Community They Build

Led by Peggy Wright-Cleveland, this workshop will cover the requirements for NEH Fellowship, National Humanities Center Fellowship, and ACLS Fellowship applications. Based on similarities, a plan will be offered for efficiently submitting applications for all three, as well as strategies for re-application.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 89:30-10:30am*College Of Engineering Building A, room A115 – open to all faculty*Are you an innovator? Learn about the National Academy of Inventors & Florida Inventors Hall of Fame

Learn from Commercialization about these two organizations and the process and criteria for nominations. Faculty inventors and researchers are invited to ask questions and learn more about commercialization at Florida State and how that contributes to the public impact of innovation.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 81:30 – 2:30*201 Westcott*Guggenheim Readiness Discussion

Peggy Wright-Cleveland will provide strategies for building your career toward Guggenheim Fellow application.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 911:00 – 12:00*201 Westcott*Fulbright Scholar Application Workshop

Led by Peggy Wright-Cleveland, former Fulbright Scholar to Côte d'Ivoire and current Fulbright Liaison at FSU, this workshop will cover key aspects of the Fulbright application process including strategies for meeting FSU administrative requirements and managing your leave collegially. There will be ample time for Q & A.