

RESEARCH & WRITING RESOURCES

How to move beyond feeling stuck and confused about writing

The Reading Writing Center

Not sure how to put your ideas on that blank document? The Reading Writing Center (RWC) is here to help!

Sign up for a consultation appointment; it's easy, and there is even a walkthrough video

RWC also has for-credit courses to improve your writing skills

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

FSU Libraries

Maybe your concerns involve citation rules and writing styles. FSU Libraries and its Citation Management Tools have got you covered!

OPEN LIBRARY

Find guides for avoiding plagiarism, understanding copyright, and using proper citations/references

FSU Libraries also has several digital and free research journals, newspapers, and databases want to know a secret?

The best resource when you are struggling with an assignment is your professor! Checking in with your instructor shows your dedication to seeking understanding.

Good communication also means a lot when professors are calculating participation points and when you ask them for letters of recommendation!

Best wishes on your research & writing projects!

Office of the Vice President for Faculty Development & Advancement

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY