

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY
OFFICE OF FACULTY DEVELOPMENT AND ADVANCEMENT

February 28, 2022

MEMORANDUM

To: Academic Deans and Department Chairs/School Directors

From: Janet Kistner, Ph.D.
Vice President for Faculty Development and Advancement

Subject: 2022/2023 Promotion and Tenure Process

The online Promotion and Tenure system will be available for the 2022/2023 promotion and tenure cycle on Monday, March 7, 2022.

As you review the tenure-track faculty members within your unit who are below the rank of tenured full professor, you will be determining who is eligible to be considered for promotion and/or tenure during the 2022/2023 promotion and tenure process. The deadline for deans to submit all promotion and/or tenure eBinders to the Office of the Vice President for Faculty Development and Advancement for review by the University Promotion and Tenure Committee is Friday, October 14, 2022.

Promotion and Tenure Q&A Sessions

A Q&A session for Assistant Professors focusing on the promotion and tenure process will take place on Wednesday, March 30, 2022, from 3:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Zoom. Assistant Professors who will be going up for promotion and tenure in 2022/2023 or in the next few years are strongly encouraged to attend. Vice President Kistner will be available to answer any questions.

A Q&A session for Associate Professors focusing on the promotion to Professor process will take place on Monday, April 4, 2022 from 3:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Zoom. Associate Professors who will be going up to Professor in 2022/2023 or in the next few years are strongly encouraged to attend. Vice President Kistner will be available to answer any questions

A Q&A session for staff focusing on the faculty promotion process will take place on Wednesday, April 6, 2021, from 3:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Zoom. Staff who will be assisting in the preparation of faculty promotion materials are strongly encouraged to attend. Melissa Crawford, Faculty Administrator in the Office of Faculty Development and Advancement, will be available to answer any questions.

Election of Promotion and Tenure Committee Members

Members of the Promotion and Tenure Committees at all levels are responsible for advising the President regarding whether each candidate meets the University criteria for promotion and/or tenure. It is important that these elected representatives are among the most experienced and qualified faculty members who are committed to reading and evaluating the files of all candidates in an independent manner. The FSU Faculty Handbook (Section 5) and BOT-UFF Collective Bargaining Agreement (Appendix I.3.b) states that “each department shall have an elected faculty promotion and tenure committee, of whom a majority of the members shall be tenured faculty” Tenure-earning faculty may be elected to departmental committees as long as the majority of the members are tenured; the Faculty Senate Steering Committee has affirmed that this section also applies to colleges without departments. In colleges with departments or schools, the college committee must be comprised of tenured faculty only. The dean's eligibility to function in relation to the college promotion and tenure committee is subject to the governing bylaws of the college.

The University Promotion and Tenure Committee is composed of tenured faculty members only, with at least one elected representative from each college. Deans are not eligible for election to the University Promotion and Tenure Committee.

The spouse/partner/family member of a candidate may serve on a committee, but may not be present for, or participate in, the discussion of the binder and may not vote on the candidacy of their spouse/partner.

Members of promotion and tenure committees must be prepared to respond to questions about the records of candidates from their departments, schools or colleges. During meetings of promotion and tenure committees at all levels, committee members may ask for clarification of material presented in a candidate's file and may discuss the documents contained, or referenced in, those files. A committee member may not advocate for or against a candidacy; all members should exercise their own independent evaluations of each record.

No candidate for promotion and/or tenure may serve on promotion and tenure committees, except at the departmental level under exceptional circumstances. Election results for college representation on the University Promotion and Tenure Committee are due to the Office of the Vice President for Faculty Development and Advancement by Friday, September 16, 2022.

University Criteria for Promotion and/or Tenure
Faculty Handbook, Section 5

University Promotion Criteria

- Promotion to the rank of associate professor shall be based on recognition of demonstrated effectiveness in teaching, service, scholarly or creative accomplishments, and recognized standing in the discipline and profession, as attested to by three letters from outstanding scholars outside the University.
- Promotion to the rank of professor shall be based on recognition of superior teaching, service, scholarly or creative accomplishments of high quality and recognized standing in the discipline and profession, as attested to by three letters from outstanding scholars outside the University.
- Promotion is not automatic, nor is it regarded as guaranteed upon completion of a given term of service; it is based on demonstrated merit. Typically, an assistant professor is considered simultaneously for promotion and tenure during the 6th year of service. Promotion at an earlier time is possible where there is sufficient justification.

University Tenure Criteria

- The criteria for awarding tenure are the same as those for promotion to the rank to which the candidate is being considered for promotion (or the rank held by the candidate if the candidate is not being considered for promotion). Tenure, however, is guaranteed neither by promotion nor by previous attainment of the rank of associate or full professor.

Section 5 of the Faculty Handbook, Chapter 6C2R-4.034 of the Florida State University Regulations, and Article 10 of the BOT-FSU UFF Collective Bargaining Agreement contain provisions regarding evaluation of faculty. All individuals considered for promotion or tenure must also be evaluated in accordance with the written departmental, school, and college policies, procedures, and criteria for faculty evaluation. The department/college promotion and tenure committee should advise the candidate of their readiness to be formally considered for promotion and/or tenure.

Faculty members who are earning eligibility for tenure or promotion must be given assignments throughout this period of their career that provide equitable opportunities (in relation to other faculty in the same department, school or college) to meet the required University criteria and departmental or school standards for promotion and tenure. These criteria include performance in all three areas of teaching, research or creative activity, and service. The balance of these three areas will vary throughout faculty members' careers and among the various fields and disciplines.

Evidence regarding scholarly and creative activities is typically the most difficult for promotion and tenure committees to judge. Over the years, promotion and tenure committees have looked for evidence related to national (or international) standing. For promotion to Associate Professor, the expectation is that the candidate clearly is becoming recognized nationally as a scholar or creative artist in their discipline; for Professor, the expectation is that the candidate has become so recognized. Of course, the evidence for this standing is different in different fields. The FSU Constitution seeks to accommodate the variety of disciplinary practices throughout the range of academic fields among the faculty by requiring that the University Promotion and Tenure Committee have at least one representative from each college.

Please remind your faculty members of the University criteria listed above as well as your internal (departmental and/or college) standards. The required written departmental and college statements of standards for promotion and/or tenure must be compatible with University criteria and the BOT-FSU UFF Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Who is eligible for consideration?

- “Promotion-eligible” faculty members include all faculty members below the rank of full professor.
- “Tenure-eligible” faculty members are those who will be in their fifth (5th), sixth (6th), or seventh (7th) year of tenure-earning service in 2022/2023. Departments normally consider faculty for tenure during the 6th year of service, including any prior service credit granted at the time of initial employment or any visiting time agreed to count as tenure-earning. Departments may consider faculty members for early tenure during the 5th year of tenure-earning service, provided the faculty member submits a written request that is approved by the appropriate Dean. An explanation for early tenure is included in the Dean's letter.
- Typically, assistant professors are considered simultaneously for promotion and tenure during the sixth (6th) year of service.
- eBinders must be submitted for all faculty members in their sixth (6th) or seventh (7th) year of tenure earning service unless a written request is forwarded to the Office of the Vice President for Faculty Development and Advancement.

Note on the COVID-19 Tenure Clock Extension

- All tenure-earning faculty that were employed as full-time faculty at FSU in Spring 2020 have been granted a one-year extension to their tenure timeline. This extra year is in addition to any prior extension of the tenure clock. (Note those who received letters of non-renewal were not granted the extension.)
- Faculty members may opt out of the COVID-related extension and remain on their original timeline. Eligible faculty members have until October 15th of their 5th year of tenure earning service (without the COVID extension) to opt out of the tenure clock extension.
- Faculty members who were previously granted a tenure clock extension for the 2019-2020 academic year are also granted the COVID extension as well. Faculty in this situation will receive 2 extra years on the tenure clock. For example, a faculty on parental leave in spring 2020 and who was granted an extension of the tenure clock is entitled to an additional one-year extension of the tenure clock due to the pandemic, thus totaling an extension of two years.

Withdrawal from consideration:

- The candidate may withdraw his or her eBinder within five (5) working days of being informed of the results of the secret ballot vote of the committee at every level, of the secret ballot vote of the tenured faculty, of the chair and/or dean, and the university committee, regardless of the results of the vote. The withdrawal request must be in writing.

File submitted:

- Main eBinder: One main eBinder is prepared for each candidate, including those who are being considered for both promotion and tenure. The main eBinder is produced within the online workflow system.
- Publications or Creative Activity Binder: Copies of the candidate's publications (or evidence of their creative activities) are placed in a separate hard-copy binder or electronic file. These materials are not forwarded to the University Promotion and Tenure Committee but can be requested by that committee.
- See Attachment I for a description of the required content for each section of the main eBinder.

Who is responsible for the preparation and progression of the eBinder?

- Faculty members are not required to prepare their own eBinders; they are, however, expected to participate in preparation of the eBinder.
- The main eBinder should meet all requirements of Attachment I before it is submitted to the Office of the Vice President for Faculty Development and Advancement.
- The department chair (or dean) and the candidate will review the eBinder and will electronically sign the Summary Cover Sheet(s) before the eBinder is submitted to the next level of review.
- The candidate is responsible for confirming that the eBinder is complete. The candidate's electronic signature on the eBinder Summary Cover Sheet(s) certifies that the eBinder is complete and that the candidate has had an opportunity to assist in its preparation. The electronic signature of the department chair (or dean) on the Summary Cover Sheet(s) certifies that the department chair (or dean) has completed his or her responsibility to prepare the eBinder in compliance with University procedures, that the candidate has had the opportunity to review the eBinder, and that all materials in the eBinder are valid and accurate.
- At this point, the eBinder is ready for review. During the review process, the only documents that may be added are the department chair's and/or dean's letter evaluating a candidate, the candidate's response to those letters if needed (with the exception of items described below) and the narrative explanations summarizing the meetings of each committee in the process.
- The only other acceptable additions by the candidate to the completed eBinders are: proof of an article accepted for publication, documentation of a new grant approval, or documentation that a creative activity has been accepted for viewing. Please see Attachment 1 regarding the placement of these specific items.
- Evaluations must be based on the record as revealed in the eBinder. It is inappropriate for anyone (including deans, department chairs, school directors, faculty colleagues, other committee members, or candidates) to submit materials independently or to request conferences with committee members reviewing an eBinder.

Candidate opportunity to take action following results:

- Candidates will have 5 business days to upload a response to the department committee/department chair's decision and the area committee/college committee/dean's decision. Candidates should monitor the progression of their binder through the online system paying special attention to system email notifications.

Recording results:

- The reason(s) for negative secret ballots from committee members will be recorded on the Reasons for Negative Committee Review Ballots page within the online workflow. Only the official reasons designated by the University Committee for a negative ballot may be used (Note: see updated Attachment I).
- Results of the tenured faculty vote are only indicated on the Summary Cover Sheet for Tenure; no reasons for any negative ballots will be noted.

- Following the meeting, the chair of each promotion and tenure committee must prepare and upload a signed Summary of Discussion which explains the discussion and actions taken by the committee.
- If there are negative votes from the committee, the summary of discussion must elaborate on the reason(s) for the votes. Simply re-stating the numerical vote in the narrative is not sufficient.

Note on abstentions and absentees:

- A faculty member who accepts election to a promotion and tenure committee at any level accepts the responsibility of reviewing and evaluating all eBinders considered by the committee.
- Abstentions are limited to situations involving real or perceived conflicts of interest (familial relations or substantial professional or financial entanglements that prevent judging the candidate objectively).
- Absences from campus that result in a failure to ballot during the review process should be recorded as “absent,” not as an “abstention.”
- Abstentions and absences are listed separately on the Summary Cover Sheet(s).
- A spouse/partner/family member who serves on a committee shall also recuse themselves from the discussion of the candidate.

Information unique to tenure candidates:

Vote of the tenured faculty:

- Recommendations for tenure shall begin with the faculty member’s supervisor. They must also include a poll by secret ballot and a narrative explanation written by the department chair or college dean summarizing the discussion and actions of the tenured members of the faculty member’s department or college. The review by the tenured faculty will be conducted before the eBinder is submitted to the next level and the results will be indicated on the Summary Cover Sheet for Tenure. After the secret ballot vote and narrative of the tenured faculty is compiled and uploaded, the candidate is provided five (5) working days to withdraw his or her eBinder.

Adjustments of tenure service record:

- Tenure service credit transferred from another institution must be agreed upon in writing by the dean of the college at the time of the original appointment, and must be explained in the Dean’s letter. Prior to the time the faculty member becomes eligible to be considered for tenure (i.e., prior to their 5th year of service) by the department/school or college promotion and tenure committee, the faculty member has one opportunity to withdraw all or a portion of this service credit.
- Any agreement to adjust the tenure status of the candidate must be included in the Dean’s letter. Agreements may include withdrawal of prior service credit, mid-year hire agreement, agreement to count visiting time as tenure-earning, parental leave agreement, Article VI agreement (for administrative assignment), or extension of the tenure-earning period due to a qualifying personal circumstance (e.g., childbirth or adoption, personal injury or illness, care of ill or injured dependents, elder care, death of closely related family member resulting in need for extended dependent care).

Seven-Year Rule:

- The FSU Faculty Handbook provides in Section 5: Faculty Development, that no person “may remain in the service of the University as a nonpermanent member of the faculty of any college, school, or other academic unit in any rank or combination of ranks for a total of more than seven years” (Seven-Year Rule). This includes the assistant professor, associate professor, and professor ranks, and visiting appointments in those ranks. All or part of the time in visiting appointments at the rank of assistant professor or above may be accepted as tenure-earning if mutually agreed upon in writing by the academic dean and the faculty member at the time of appointment to a tenure-earning position.

10. Sample Letter Sent to Outside Reviewer
(see Appendix A for Sample Wording for Requesting Outside Letters – coming soon to the FDA website)
Letters requesting evaluations:
  - a) must be impartial, emphasizing the need for an objective assessment of the candidate's professional standing and an evaluation of the quality of the candidate's contributions to the field, as well as any comments concerning teaching and service, if known to the outside reviewer;
  - b) must request a statement of whether or not the outside reviewer would support the candidate for promotion and/or tenure at FSU. The request for a letter may include department and college guidelines for promotion and/or tenure (bylaws), but sending them is not required.

- To avoid doubt of possible bias, all professional relationships between the candidate and external reviewer must be acknowledged and justified (see *Individual Cover Sheet for Each Outside Letter Requested*). Relationships include, but are not limited to, student-teacher, colleagues in graduate school, former departmental colleagues, or co-authors.

Outside Letter

Number of outside letters required

Include the following for each outside letter solicited:

1. *Individual Cover Sheet for Each Outside Letter Requested*

The department chair must adhere to the rules governing outside letters. Professional relationships with the candidate are explicitly prohibited for outside reviewers unless explained by the chair. The Area or College committee should return the eBinder to the department when these rules for external review appear disregarded; this decision should not occur at the university level.

- a) Indicate the name and title of each person from whom letters were requested.
- b) Indicate any relationship between the candidate and the reviewer.
- c) If the external reviewer is not a tenured full professor, include justification of equivalent national standing.

collaborators and/or co-authors.

2. Outside Letter from Reviewer

No reply received for outside letter

If no reply was received to a request for an outside letter, the chair should upload a statement to that effect in place of the letter. If the evaluator declined to write a letter, the evaluator's response (if in writing) or an explanation from the chair should be included.

- Nondegree Education and Training – use this FEAS section to report workshops, certifications, and trainings completed in support of research, teaching and service. For example, candidates should list their completion of course redesign workshops offered by FSU's Center for the Advancement of Teaching.
- From the main menu under generate select "CV"
  - Select "Promotion and Tenure CV" from the drop-down menu
  - Select "Generate CV"

- Required: Include a one-sentence description of each published work since employment at FSU, or since last promotion at FSU, as well as a statement that identifies the status of any co-authors and their institutions, (graduate student, colleague, etc.).

14. In Press Acceptance

Faculty must upload a copy of the acceptance letter or email from the journal or publisher for each "in press" paper or book. Faculty may also include a copy of the work in this section. If candidate does not have any "in press" acceptances, please upload a statement stating to that effect.
